

Position

- Title: Software Engineer/Sr.Software Engineer
- Location : Gurgaon

Responsibilities

- Responsible for the maintenance and evolution of a set of software components.
- For the components in responsibility:
 - Ownership of the component with the Product Manager or Product Owner for its evolution.
 - Functional definition of the solution as a team with the Product Owner.
 - Definition of the technical architecture of the component and its relation to other components in the system.
 - Technical design and development of the component
 - Validation of the developments made by others on this component
 - Conduct tests on the component in development platform and in testing environment
 - Monitoring of changes in the component on the production platform
 - Participation in the resolution of incidents in production involving the component.
- Participation in activities of Software Development team and the Technology team.

Candidate should possess the following:

- Customer focus
- Project Lead, Architect and developer background
- International : Experience in multi cultural, international organization
- Internet : Familiar with Internet paradigm
- Project Mindset
- Objective driven
- Can work independently and is team Player
- Precision and quality
- Good communication skills