

ARE YOU WIRED TO MAKE A DENT IN THE UNIVERSE.
ARE YOU PASSIONATE ABOUT SUSTAINABLE SOCIAL IMPACT.
ARE YOU WILLING TO CHALLENGE STATUS QUO.

If yes then you are the right candidate as the Founder CEO of the entrepreneurial venture – BAREFOOT - India's first High Impact Networking Platform, dedicated to the Social Sector.

Incubated by Third Sector Partners (TSP), a Non Profit Company, and the country's pioneer in Executive Search for social impact organizations, Barefoot aims to shape the future of networking for the social sector.

A membership based interactive web-portal, it is our endeavour to become a medium for harnessing the power of the collective towards furthering social impact. Through a wide array of IT and mobile enabled relevant services for sector professionals, the platform has tremendous scope and potential for galvanizing action.

Hence, we are looking for an individual with an interest and passion to contribute towards a positive social change. The incumbent needs to be a high impact individual with sharp business acumen and the ability to strategize, innovate and experiment with new things. Being a start-up there are a whole lot of things you will lead - from translating broader objectives into relative strategies, to setting into motion the plans for new business development and operational excellence.

This is an outstanding prospect for the right candidate to create, establish and grow an entrepreneurial venture and help once established, this portal will facilitate in producing a profound and meaning impact in the Third Sector in India.
