1976 BATCH RUBY REUNION REPORT 2021

HIMALAYA

The elegant, large dining facility was inaugurated on December 29th, 2005 by Sri Kris Gopalakrishnan [1977/MSc/PY], CEO & MD Infosys Technologies Limited, at a glittering ceremony, attended by the faculty, staff, students, and alumni.

The facility has 3 floors with 2 dining halls per floor. Each hall has a separate entry and exit for easy movement of students. The amenities include a modern kitchen with state-of-the-art equipment's and ventilation systems, cold storage, and R.O. (reverse osmosis) water. The walls have glass mosaic tiling and the lobbies have granite flooring. The kitchen is provided with metal false ceiling. The large dining facility is aptly named Himalaya. Each of the Six dining halls are named after famous mountain peaks: Kanchenjunga, Nanga Prabat, Annapurna, Nandadevi, Kailas and Neelkant. The construction of this large dining facility, with minimal disturbance to the ecology of the campus, is a feat in itself.
